There is no feeling quite like pulling up the driveway into a home that you love, and this beautiful gem in East Peterborough checks off boxes you didn't even realize you had. Large windows allowing plenty of natural light, a stylish and modern open-concept kitchen, main floor laundry and large patio doors that lead you to an incredibly private and fully fenced backyard.

The elevated lower level leads to a bright secondary suite that offers excellent income potential. With two bedrooms, a kitchen, a full bathroom, and separate laundry facilities, everyone can enjoy their privacy and comfort.

This home offers too many benefits to mention and must be seen to be believed!
